

ANNALS of THE SOCIETY for THE HISTORY OF ECONOMIC THOUGHT

No.37

November 1999

CONTENTSECONOMIC THOUGHT OF FINANCIAL CRISIS

- Financial Crisis and Economic Thought on the Financial Problems in the Eighteenth Century:
The Financial Market, Movement of Capital and Circulation of Paper Money
..... Satoshi OKUDA... 1
- Contemporary Financial Crisis and the Theoretically Effective Range of Marx's Credit Theory Yoichi KAWANAMI... 14
- The Formation of Keynes's Theory of Monetary Economy:
A Modern Assessment Ryuzo KUROKI... 28

ARTICLES

- The Logical Structure of D. Ricardo's Funding System:
The Political Significance of the 'Equivalence Theorem'
..... Atsushi MASUNAGA... 44
- Malthus's Agricultural Bias in His First Essay on Population Yasunori FUKAGAI... 57
- Philosophical Origins of Neo-Classical Economics: Descartes and Popper
..... Eiji YAMAMOTO... 70
- Hayek and The Great Depression Susumu EGASHIRA... 82
- Kalecki and Monetary Economics Shigeyuki HATTORI... 95

COMMUNICATIONS

- Recent Studies on Adam Smith Shoji TANAKA... 107
- An Idea of Economic Society Based on the Theory of Market Society
..... Katsumi SUGIURA... 116
- Monetary Theories of Robertson and Hawtrey:
Recent Studies on Monetary and Business Cycle Theories in the Interwar
Period in Britain except for Keynes Hidetaka OHARA... 126
- The Studies in American Institutional Economics in Japan Toshihiro TANAKA... 134

Issued by

The Society for the History of Economic Thought
(Tohoku University, Sendai, Japan)