

ANNALS of the SOCIETY for the HISTORY of ECONOMIC THOUGHT

No.41

May 2002

CONTENTS

ARTICLES

‘Christian Political Economy’ and ‘Philosophic Radicalism’
A.M.C. Waterman

Rationality and the Consistency of Preferences: Robbins’ s Distancing from Mises
Takashi Nishimura

Kaldor’s Ideas Embodied in His Development Economics
Mitsunobu Maki

Pigou as the Ideal Utilitarian
Satoshi Yamazaki

Rational Expectation and Reflectivity: Reconsideration of waiting
Yuichiro Kaneko

Why was the antinomy theory of Harrod’s dynamics lost?
Takayuki Nakamura

SURVEYS

The Classical Concept of Economic Man
Kensuke Sasaki

Political Arithmetic and Hobbes’ Age
Seiichiro Ito

【Notes and Communications】

Professor Toshihiro Tanaka’s Collection of the Correspondence of John Bates Clark to Franklin Henry Giddings

Warren J. Samuels

Issued by

The Society for the History of Economic Thought
(Kwansei Gakuin University, Nishinomiya, Japan)